NOTES ON WATERFRONT AFFAIRS
PICKED UP TODAY.

P.M. Liner China Arrived Last Night
Ahead of Schedule Time—Coal Pile Affre.

The steamer Keala goes to Kahuku tonight with a load of coal.

The P.M.S.S. China will sail for San Francisco with mails and passengers at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

The British bark Oakbank began loading sugar for New York at Inter-Island wharf this morning.

The steamer Hawaii will sail at noon on Saturday for Honolulu, Honolulu, Hakalan, Pohakamau and Papeete.

Tomorrow, high tide large 3:25 a.m.; high tide small 5:12 p.m.; low tide large 8:52 p.m.; low tide small 10:50 a.m.

The P.M.S.S. China arrived off port about midnight last night, 9 days, 7 hours and 55 minutes from Yokohama, beating her previous record by 3 hours and 15 minutes.

The Pacific Mail S.S. Co's coal pile on the esplanade was on fire this morning. This is the coal that was carted away from the big pile near the wharf which was on fire a few weeks ago. Water was turned on from a water-plug with a long fire hose. The S.S. China is being supplied from the pile.

The S.S. China entered the harbor early this morning. No one from ashore but officials were allowed on board by the Board of Health until the Oriental immigrants were transferred to Quarantine. The big liner brought 366 Chinese and 9 Japanese. One hundred and fifty-three of the Chinese are contract laborers.

Although nothing definite is known about the time of sailing of the new Inter-Island steamer from San Francisco, many waterfront wags are looking for it daily. There being no mail boat to a river from the Coast until the Australia on the 11th, the arrival of the new boat with latest advices from the rest of the world is eagerly awaited by business men and the newspaper scribes. If she don't "get a move on," Christmas will be here first.

CHINESE LAW.

Public Code Overridden by the Family Code.

A doctor of the name of Liu, a native of Hunan practising in his native town of Hsiangtan, was found murdered in the streets one night last month while on his way to visit a patient. His wife reported the outrage to the district magistrate praying that steps might be taken to avenge her husband's murder. While holding the inquest over the body of the murdered doctor, the dead man's father appeared before the magistrate, confessing himself to be the murderer, stating that he had taken his son's life because he had been a most unfilial son, and had also more than once seriously beaten various senior members of his clan who attempted to remonstrate with him on his unfilial conduct and violent manner of dealing with his family and friends. This rather astounding the investigating magistrate, as it was really a case of family law versus the state laws. A parent in China has absolute power of life and death over his or her progeny, to which even the laws of the land must bow, whilst, on the other hand, the law of the state requires "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." The magistrate could not arrest the dead man's father, for he was backed by a whole army of witnesses of the Liu clan, declaring that the murdered man had but met his due; and yet the murder had to be avenged. The case will doubtless be referred to the decision of the Board of Punishments.—N. C. Daily News.

"Put Me ON At Buffalo"

The title of this wellknown song as well as the song itself emanated from the brain of an employee of the Buffalo Brewing Company. That enterprising firm, believing that a man who could compose so catchy an air must have a large and well balanced brain, straightway raised his salary. This has proven to be a good move on their part as is testified by the excellent qualities of their beer, which is dispensed over the bars of the Cosmopolitan, Pacific and Royal saloons at the rate of two glasses for 25c; half and half is also served at the same price. It is always fresh and cold and life-sustaining.
Or you can get one glass of Buffalo and one of Pabst beer, the fine product of the Milwaukee brewery. Exchangeable checks good at all the above-mentioned resorts are given in change if you only want one drink. "Best beer ever in Honolulu," is the verdict of many of our prominent citizens.

Sound Bones

And healthy bodies are a fortune within themselves. Money can't buy them, thieves can't steal them, but having them, all can preserve them, by drinking Rainier Beer. It's brewed of finest hops and malt and is absolutely pure. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

Mrs. George E. Boardman calls the attention of the public to her annual display of articles suitable for holiday gifts, which is now ready for inspection at her residence, Lunailo street.

City Carriage Co., J. S. And. cash manager. If you want a hack with good horse and careful driver ring up telephone 113, corner of Fort and Merchant streets. Hack at all hours.

The Pacific Hardware Co. are exhibiting the finest collection of piano, banquet, boudoir and stand lamps ever seen in the city. They are direct from the factory and comprise the latest artistic designs. The low prices will surprise you.

Election of Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Waimanalo Sugar Company, held this second day of December, 1896, the following stockholders were re-elected to serve as officers for the ensuing year:

|                    |                |
